Where the detail matters

We pride ourselves on our environmental policies, holding your event at the RSA house means showing your support for a venue and organisation that does more than just recycle.

In addition to this all taxable profits generated by RSA House are donated by gift aid to support the charitable work of the RSA.

For over 250 years the Royal Society for the encouragement of Arts, Manufactures and Commerce (RSA) has been a cradle of enlightenment thinking and a force for social progress.
