

Ideas and actions for a 21st century enlightenment

Fellowship newsletter - 6 June 2011

In this issue: RSA visual refresh | Power Lines report | RSA Comment: In All Fairness | Grimsby Fellows' Network and local area redevelopment | RSA Fellows' MCICH Network events in June | In Your Network | RSA House brochure | Watch Live! | London City Network

Latest news

RSA visual refresh: website, newsletters & videos

As announced in April, we have been rolling out a new visual identity across various platforms, starting with the Journal and corporate materials. The website and the Fellowship newsletter have now also undergone a visual refresh. News and updates from across the RSA coming soon; we hope you enjoy the new look.

Power Lines

Our latest paper, Power Lines, follows on from the RSA's Connected Communities report, deepening the analysis to look at networks of power and influence, and in particular those who are isolated in the community

RSA Comment: In All Fairness

RSA Comment is an online space to consider, contribute to and comment on topical issues of the day. A recent article by Bruce Lloyd FRSA argues that fairness – or more specifically, a perceived sense of fairness – is a critical factor in sustaining relationships between stakeholders.

Read In All Fairness on RSA Comment.

Get involved

Grimsby Fellows' Network and local area redevelopment

Since the launch of the Grimsby Network, Fellows have looked at key strands of the Freeman Street regeneration project. Led by Richard Bellamy FRSA, the Grimsby Fellows' Network meets next on Thursday 16 June where we will be discussing social return on investment.

Contact the Grimsby Network ►

RSA Fellows' MCICH Network

In your network

Laura Billings FRSA works with a variety of organisations to build capacity and ensure long-term sustainability through community engagement and social enterprise. One organisation she works for is Magic Breakfast - a charity that provides nutritious food for children who would otherwise go hungry at the start of the school day.

As she says "Every day 700,000 children in this country arrive at school too hungry to learn. I would like to hear from anyone who

London City Network events in June

The RSA Fellows' Media, Creative Industries, Culture & Heritage Network (MCICH) is holding two excellent events on 13 and 14 June in Edinburgh; looking at Economics, Internet and Society and how museums will survive the recession.

Find out more ▶

has an interest in food, social enterprise and healthy eating particularly in schools and the wider school community, and could help us build more sustainable, self-funding or networked breakfast clubs."

Read the full interview and connect with Laura ▶

Coming up

What have you got coming up?

Did you know proceeds from the RSA House are gift aided back into the RSA to carry out its charitable work? We are pleased to announce a new RSA House brochure and special late rates for Fellows. Check out our website and book your next event here.

Find out more ▶

Chief executive's annual lecture: Watch live!

On Thursday 9 June, 6pm watch live as Matthew Taylor gives his annual lecture. Building on our theme of 21st century enlightenment, he will explore the role that business plays in shaping people's behaviour, and how we can combine a strategy for competitive success with a commitment to social good.

Find out more ▶

London City Network

The next London City Network is taking place today, Monday 6 June, 6pm and is being held at the Coachmakers pub near Oxford Street. The meeting is an opportunity to meet other Fellows and find out who is in your network.

Find out more ▶

Privacy | Contact us | Disclaimer | RSS Copyright © RSA 2011

If there is anything you are doing in your area which other Fellows should know about and can get involved in, please let us know.

We will only include items in this newsletter which relate to the goals of the RSA. Any decisions will be at the editor's discretion.

You have received this email as a Fellow of the RSA. If you do not wish to receive this newsletter, you can unsubscribe. You might miss out on the latest RSA news!