

RSA Royal Designer for Industry (RDI) nomination form

Confidential

Since 1936 the RSA has awarded the RDI to UK designers of all disciplines who have shown sustained design excellence, work of aesthetic value and significant benefit to society.

Only 200 designers may hold the title. Additionally, an honorary title (Hon RDI) may be given to a limited number of designers of international standing who are non-UK citizens.

Nominator details

Name

RDI/Hon RDI

☐

Email

Nomination year

Mobile

Date

Seconders (Optional)

Nominee details

Name(s)

Proposed Award

Discipline

Nationality (Optional)

Email

Is this nomination for more than one person?

☐

Mobile

Company/Partnership name (Optional)

Nominee Summary

Short summary (50–100 words) of your reasons for your nomination

Web link

Further links (Optional)

Publications and media (Optional)

Membership and Awards (Optional)

Further background information or comments

- A Evidence of highest quality design
- B Evidence of measurable impact
- C Design career of sustained excellence

How does the nominee meet the Nomination Criteria in the Guidance Notes, producing work of outstanding quality and impact over a substantial period of time? (600–1000 words)

Attachments

Continue on another sheet if needed

Please attach nominee's CV