CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP at the RSA
We are the RSA.
The royal society for arts, manufacturers and commerce.

We believe in a world that is resilient, rebalanced, and regenerative, where everyone can fulfil their potential.

Through our global network of partners and over 30,000 Fellows, we unite people and ideas in collective action to unlock opportunities to regenerate our world.

RSA history

Established in 1754, the RSA has been at the forefront of finding ways to regenerate our world through collective action for almost 270 years.

“...It is an incredibly exciting time to be a part of the RSA as we embark on our ambitious new Design for Life mission. Working alongside business and industry is crucial to help us unlock opportunities to regenerate our world and drive societal improvement. Through our Corporate Membership we are building new social partnerships to deliver social changes.”

Andy Haldane
Chief executive of the RSA

Our Corporate Members form part of our rich heritage and legacy and make the RSA’s future projects possible.
Our membership community

RSA Corporate Membership brings together a diverse, global network of like-minded organisations with a commitment to make our collective vision for a better future a reality through sharing expertise and experience.

We create opportunities to influence policy, learn from innovative speakers and gain insights from the latest research, providing a direct impact for your business. Through your participation we profile your business to our networks as being at the heart of positive change. Join us to be at the forefront of the trends shaping our future.

Every pound from your membership fee is invested in creating impact and social change. Your Corporate Membership enables the RSA to continue the work we began in 1754 to deliver positive change for people, place and planet.

Inspire and be inspired

The RSA has a thriving year-round calendar of events and activities highlighting some of the brightest, most courageous, and most creative minds from around the world. Your Corporate Membership gives you access to this platform, both in person and digitally, to inspire your community. Members will also benefit from:

- Regular exclusive networking and thought leadership events.
- Priority access to workshops and round tables.
- Workplace workshops delivered for your colleagues.
- The RSA's design thinking and change methodology.

Host and entertain

RSA House is one of Central London's most iconic venues, with an enviable status as a place where world-leading ideas are transformed into world-changing actions. Your Corporate Membership provides multiple ways to use the space to support your business:

- Complimentary daytime or evening hire of a prime space at RSA House.
- Access to RSA House and The Coffee House for meetings and workspace.
- VIP seats at high profile events such as President’s Lecture and Dinner, the Albert Medal and the Bicentenary Medal ceremonies.

Influence industry and policy

Our mission follows in the best traditions and ambitions of the RSA, providing a clear-eyed diagnosis of current challenges, a hopeful vision for better futures and inspiring collective action, supported by Fellows and partners alike.

Your account manager will work with you to identify ways the RSA can support your organisation’s mission. Corporate Membership can increase your profile with influential audiences and decision makers across multiple industries and amongst our diverse, global network of more than 30,000 Fellows. This includes:

- Your profile featured on our digital channels such as website and Fellowship newsletter.
- Opportunities to co-create high profile public events and content.
- Displaying your logo in RSA House and across our digital platforms.
We will do this by unlocking the potential in human, social and natural capital to achieve a more resilient, rebalanced, and regenerative future for everyone regardless of location, background or starting point.

Come with us

By working together we will generate the confidence, skills, ideas and connections for all people to make a positive contribution to the places they live, work or study, to regenerate the planet we all share.

We will do this by unlocking the potential in human, social and natural capital to achieve a more resilient, rebalanced, and regenerative future for everyone regardless of location, background or starting point.
