

RSA Sustainability Network

October 2017 Newsletter

Thank you to those who were able to join us for our two September events: the Sustainable Fashion London Symposium, coordinated by our Sustainable Fashion sub-group during London Fashion Week, and our first online event “How can we use the SDG Framework to inspire local action?”, held in partnership with RSA Global Fellowship.

Our members are based everywhere from Bristol to Leeds to Aberdeen and everywhere in between, and we are excited to be expanding our events to other parts of the UK and online.

Take a look at the exciting programme of news and events detailed below. I hope to see you at one of them soon!

Susan Harris FRSA
Network Lead

Network Members Survey

This month, we've also been asking members to complete our Members Survey. If you haven't yet completed it, please take 10 minutes to do so now. Your input will really help us in shaping our programme for the year ahead.

▶ PROVIDE YOUR FEEDBACK

RSA Birmingham: In ConveRSAtion with David Middleton

Wednesday 1 November, 14:00 - 15:30
mac Birmingham Cinema

Join our Chair Susan Harris in discussion with industry experts as they consider what makes sustainable places. This event follows the morning conference Making Places that Last – Sustainable Homes and Communities.

▶ BOOK NOW

RSA Brighton Sustainability Event: Resilience & Hope in Action

Wednesday 8 November, 18:00 - 20:00

Fellows based in the South East are invited to join us to advance solutions to a sustainable future in Brighton and beyond. Hear from speakers Catherine Weetman and Libby Davy at this event.

▶ BOOK NOW

RSA Global: Sustainable Fashion

Monday 30 October, 17:15
Online / Zoom

We'll discuss whether the clothing industry can take meaningful action to enhance sustainability in a fast-moving, trend-driven consumer market in this online event, open to FRSA's across the globe.

BOOK NOW

In ConveRSAtion with Mike Barry

Wednesday 22 November, 18:00 - 21:00
RSA House, London

This event at RSA House in London will provide a chance to hear Professor Wendy Purcell in conversation with Mike Barry, Head of Sustainability at Marks and Spencer, on the role of business in creating a sustainable future.

▶ BOOK NOW

Home on the web

Find out details of our upcoming and previous events and other exciting sustainability activities going on throughout the RSA on our new webpage. You can also point friends & colleagues towards the page to sign up online to receive these newsletters and event invitations.

▶ VISIT OUR PAGE

Get Involved

Joining one of our sub-groups is a great way to get more involved in the network. Our sub-groups are action-oriented, and each aims to produce some useful outputs that contribute to their field. See here for more information on the sub groups, details of their work, and how to get in touch.

▶ FIND OUT MORE