We are the Royal Society for the encouragement of Arts, Manufactures and Commerce. We are The RSA. We believe in a world where everyone is able to participate in creating a better future. Our purpose and passion is to unite people and ideas to resolve the most pressing challenges of our time.

The RSA has been at the forefront of social change since our foundation at a London coffee house, called Rawthmells, in 1754, by a group of committed people with a shared vision for a better tomorrow.

The RSA brings together a global community of problem solvers – including a network of over 30,000 RSA Fellows – all sharing the desire to support positive and proactive change within their communities and on a global scale.

Our coffeehouse offers a place to collaborate, connect and realise practical solutions to the challenges of our time.

To find out about all the ways that you can join the conversation, talk to one of the team or visit:
