

RSA Ideas: London

Monday 9 July 2018

Host: Judy Rees FRSA, London Fellowship Councillor
Guest Speaker: Simon Krystman FRSA, Ideas Nest

Fintan Nagle FRSA – Lyra

Lyra is a non-profit conversation service which supports online chats, discussions and debates, respecting the user's attention.

@Lyra_Comms

Ioannis Athanasiou FRSA – Youth Work of Museums

Researching and advocating for inclusive and safe ways that museums can evolve into spaces of change for young people on the margins of society.

@athannis

Jaki Bent FRSA – If Everyone Cares: Connecting Communities, One Click at a Time

The aim is to facilitate and encourage cross community collaboration: people with charities; charities with each other; charities with businesses; businesses with other businesses and people with people.

@Jaki_Bent

James Sancto FRSA – We Make Change

We give you the power to change the world. Our platform enables anyone, anywhere to use their skills to support the causes they care about.

@WeMakeChangeNow

Jamie Gannaway FRSA – Create a lexicon for the 'top end' of the gig economy

There is no accurate measurement or language to describe senior day rate contractors or consultants. Let's create a standardised language so we describe their activities in the same way.

@jamiegannaway

Kian Bakhtiari FRSA – The People online platform

An online platform which connects social Impact projects with brands that care. The People's mission is to bridge the gap between business and society based on the U.N's 17 Sustainable Development Goals.

@KianBakhtiari

Zoe Olsberg – Ecoed

Ecoed is the first environmental education and behavioural change initiative in the form of an online app:- it is fun, interactive, and utilises practical methodologies.

@ecoedlife
